

TERRI GODIN-SOKOLOSKI

Vice-Principal
Sacred Heart
Espanola

Terri graduated from Nipissing University in 2001 with a Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Education. She has served the Huron-Superior Catholic District School Board for the last eighteen years and has taught all grades from JK to Grade 6.

With a diploma in Early Childhood Education and two specialists in Developmental Reading and Mathematics, Terri has preferred to spend most of those years in the primary division.

She has taken on roles such as mentor, coach, lead literacy teacher, and faith ambassador. She has recently accepted the position as Vice-Principal at Sacred Heart School in Espanola. Terri, her husband, Jason, and their three boys are members of St. Jude Parish in Espanola.

As an active member of her parish, Terri has initiated and organized a children's liturgy program which will be implemented soon. In her spare time, Terri teaches karate to children and takes part in many community events and fundraising activities.

