

STACEY WAGLER

Vice-Principal
St. Mary
Massey

Stacey Graduated from Bachelor of Sciences at Laurentian University in 1999. She attended Teachers College at Nipissing University in North Bay, and graduated in the Spring of 2000. Since then, She has completed many other courses in Special Education, Math, Physical Education and Technology.

Stacey started teaching in June 2000. Her first teaching role was in Special Education in Blind River. Her love for teaching Special Education carried on throughout her career. She has taught primary grades K-6, Reading Recovery, and spent the last two years on the Curriculum Team as a Numeracy Facilitator.

Stacey is happy to live and work in her hometown of Massey, Ontario. Stacey was lucky enough to have grown up in a teaching family. Her Grandfather taught K-8 in a room behind the Immaculate Conception Church, and her Mother taught Kindergarten at St. Mary Massey for over 30 years. She was baptized, married, and attends Immaculate Conception Church.
