POLICY

The Huron-Superior Catholic District School Board believes that it is essential that the safe arrival of its students be ensured. The Board is committed to working with parent(s)/guardian(s) to establish a mechanism to respond to students' unexplained failure to arrive at school.

The purpose of this policy and accompanying procedural guideline is to provide an outline of the school's procedures to be followed, in order to respond to any student's unexplained failure to arrive at school as expected.
