POLICY

In its publication Catholic Trustees: Advocates, Guardians & Stewards of Catholic Education (2006), the Ontario Catholic School Trustees' Association (OCSTA) indicates that, "In addition to carrying out those many responsibilities that they share with public school board trustees, Catholic trustees, as representatives of the Catholic community, must ensure that the mission of Catholic education, as part of the broader mission of the Church, is fulfilled" (p. 1).

This means that Catholic trustees are called to promote, protect, and advocate for Catholic education on an ongoing basis. The Huron-Superior Catholic District School Board's communication with the Ontario government plays an important role in identifying, discussing and finding solutions to policy and financial issues.
